MITG&SP'S YEOMEN

APRIL 18 AT 2:00 PM: YEOMEN AT MIT. At 2 PM on Sunday, April 18, NEGASSers plan to meet on the ticket line outside the Sala de Puerto Rico on the second floor of the MIT Student Center to see YEOMEN. [If you'd like to try for a Group Rate, contact Us - Our contact info is on the masthead - and We'll see what We can do - otherwise We're afraid the tickets will only be available at MIT's standard low rates - mlc] Why? Because this cast includes some of NEGASS's favorite people: Larry Seiler (remember his Florian at Sudbury?) as Jack Point, Michael Goodwin (remember his MIT Frederic?) as Fairfax, Bridget Copley (did you catch her MIT Patience?) as Elsie, Nathan Handspicker (did you see - and *hear* - him as the Boatswain, Sir Roderick, and/or Pooh-Bah at MIT?)... Kate Thornton as Phoebe, Andrew Sweet as Sgt. Meryll, David Daly as the Lieutenant - even hereditary NEGASSer and MIT freshman Richard Burstein as Second Yeoman.

And because Alan Yost's music direction is very fine. [And We hope that Our stage direction will be acceptable to the audience. - mlc]

After the performance, we plan to gather at Mary Chung's, a favorite local Chinese restaurant, for dinner. Please be in touch with Program Chair Rebecca Consentino by April 11 (see her contact info on the Masthead) to reserve your seat at the table.

HOW TO GET THERE: MIT is easily accessible by T: Take the Red Line to the Central Square stop, and walk south (or catch the #1 Bus) down Massachusetts Ave. - or go to the Kendall Square stop and walk west through the campus. If you're driving, take Mass. Ave. from anywhere to about a block north of Memorial Drive (on the Cambridge side of the Charles River), and find a parking space. (MIT parking lots, although posted "restricted", are actually free and open to all comers on Sunday, as are the parking meters on Mass. Ave.)

The MIT Student Center (known on campus maps as Building W20) is the large gray building surrounded by stairs on the north side of the lawn located on the west side of Massachusetts Ave., opposite the main entrance to MIT. The Sala da Puerto Rico is on the second floor of the building. People with Web access: Visit http://whereis.mit.edu/bin/map?locate=studcent&localte=bldg\_w20 for an exact map of the area, or <http://whereis.mit.edu/doc/getting-to-mit.html> for clear directions from anywhere.

Mary Chung's is just a few blocks north on Mass. Ave. from the Student Center, within easy walking distance.

MARCH MEETING: A CONCERT OF G&S SOLOS AND ENSEMBLES: On Sunday, March 21, NEGASS was treated to an enjoyable performance of excerpts from YEOMEN, PINAFORE, PATIENCE and MIKADO performed by baritone Dan Kamelic, mezzo Anita Costanza and soprano Jennifer Johnson. Dan and Anita are well-known to the NEGASS crowd through their work with MITGASP and both lived up to the high standards we have come to expect. Jennifer Johnson, a student at Longy School of Music, is a new-comer but proved to be a most welcome one, demonstrating a clear tone and good enunciation. Bonnie Donham provided excellent accompaniment at the piano. The program of solos and duets (there don't seem to be any G&S trios for a soprano, mezzo and baritone) was over all too soon. [Thus challenged, We rushed to Our handy list of G&S ensembles, and found that, in fact, there is no such trio - or none that We can remember! Does anyone else know of such an one? -- mlc]

Unfortunately, the attendance was embarrassingly low, to put it politely, more than suggesting that this is not the type of entertainment which will draw enough of the membership to justify repetition.

J. DONALD SMITH

[The NEGASS board is still attempting to understand what draws members to meetings, and what leaves you sitting at home. Did you miss this meeting because it didn't interest you, intrinsically? - or because it didn't interest you enough to give up a Sunday afternoon, but might have attracted you on a Thursday night? - or because you'd attended the last meeting and thought two in a row was too many...? Did you stay away because you hadn't heard enough about the performers or the performance in advance? - or because you hadn't known the details of the meeting enough in advance to make your plans? Call Us at (781) 646-9115, or e-mail Us at mlcar@mit.edu, and tell Us why! -- mlc]

Harlequin Costumes tells Us they have complete sets of costumes for most G&S shows, and for other shows as well, and are happy to make extra costumes to fit difficult sizes. "We have shipped productions all over Canada and the United States and our staff is experienced in creating costumes that will fit exactly without ever seeing the actors... We will be happy to send your costumes for your first fittings or dress rehearsals, at no extra charge... Harlequin also offers wig rentals and sales plus a complete range of theatrical make-up." Call 1-800-823-6706, or check out their Web site at www.harlequincostume.com for more information.

Welcome, Welcome, Welcome We New Members Janet Shawcross. Janet, who lives in Lowell, MA, describes herself as an "Enthusiastic Audience," "G&S Video Watcher," and "Greene, Bradley etc. Reader." She adds, "I could probably play any part in any G&S production because of my experience - I have experienced every age of every character." [We like her spirit!] Hearty Greetings Offer We!

SUMMER SAG IN SAVOY SIGHTINGS? TAKE HEART! ELDERHOSTEL makes G&S alive and well in July at the Incarnation Center in Ivoryton, Connecticut, in the form of two programs to be conducted by Ralph MacPhail, Jr.-- known to many NEGASS members as a G&S enthusiast, scholar and all-around Savoy savant, and for some years as major-domo of SavoyNet-- and Music Director Deborah Lyon. The first program, July 11-17, will feature lectures, readings, group singing, and video and audio recordings, and will conclude, for those inclined to perform, with a concert version of IOLANTHE. This course, originated more than a dozen years ago by Bob Cumming and Deb Lyon, attracts a number of repeat participants each year.

The following session, July 18-24, will concentrate on "The Big Three"-- PINAFORE, PIRATES and MIKADO-- with less emphasis on performance, though there will be a last night concert (again, by those so inclined). This program, also long-running, was originated by Rafe at Bridgewater College in Virginia. Those familiar with Elderhostel will know that tuition ($397 for each session) includes room and board (Sunday dinner to Saturday breakfast), and that eligibility begins at age 55 (a younger spouse or adult companion may attend with an age-eligible participant). Register toll-free with Elderhostel at 1-877-426-2167. Questions

"The fairy-princess field is an extremely varied and rewarding one," AAFP director Princess Moondancer said. "As a fairy princess, you'll have the opportunity to do everything from sprinkling pixie dust on an enchanted apricot glade to undoing the spell of an evil queen and turning a toad back into a handsome prince. What other job can offer those kinds of satisfying challenges on a daily basis? Being a magical fairy princess is a great way for girls to really let their full potential shine through."

But despite such arguments, little girls show little interest in the once-thriving fairy-princess field. "When I grow up, I want to be a U.N. interpreter," said 7-year-old Ashley Pfeiffer of Lodi, NJ. "Fairy princesses are stupid."

"I got a Princess Pretty petals make-up kit for my birthday, and I hate it," said Caitlin Muller, 9, of Columbus, GA. "Everything was pink, and it smelled like stinky perfume. I'd rather play with my Invisible Woman anatomy doll. You can actually see her entire digestive tract and circulatory system."

Fairy princessing is not the only field to fall on hard times in recent years. According to the BLS report, occupations such as swan queen, enchanted ballerina, good witch, and beauty-pageant winner have all experienced sharp declines in popularity, as well.

"One thing is for certain," Princess Moondancer said. "If America's girls continue to ignore the fairy-princess profession, very few of us will be living happily ever after."
